Cabernet Sauvignon - Block 50 is in the Clements Hills sub-AVA of Lodi. This vineyard is on the east side of the Lodi AVA that boasts older soils with volcanic sediments and clasts. Prior being planted to vineyard, the property was used for various row crops and pastureland. The warm days and cool evenings allow for an ideal relationship for pH and acidity.

Cabernet Franc - The Sheldon Ranch was purchased by the Kautz family in the 1980s. Prior to the family buying this ranch, it was well-known for growing hops. The Sheldon Ranch is in the Sloughhouse sub-AVA of Lodi. This area is slightly higher in elevation and features the Cosumnes River and Deer Creek that run through it. The soils consist of bedrock from the Sierra Nevada mountain range. The climate is warm, allowing Cabernet Franc to fully ripen. This vintage was selected from Block 72.
